

<DECODE>: ARTISTS POLICING DATA

ART WORKSHOP POLICING AND MAPPING YOUR NEIGHBORHOOD WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 19, 2018 1 - 2.30 PM

An immersive art workshop for 6-9 yr olds. Kids here will learn to police and understand their neighborhood using various data sources like traditional maps, GPS and human connections.

Teachers/ parents must accompany their child. This is a free public event. Space is limited. Please RSVP: gallery@jjay.cuny.edu

ART WORKSHOP PROTEST ART: RESPONDING TO YOUR RESISTANCE WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 19, 2018 3.30 - 5 PM

An immersive art workshop for 9-12 yr olds. Kids here will understand civil rights, their inner resistances and channelize that into something meaningful for themselves and their communities.

Please drop-off your kids at the exhibit space. This is a free public event. Space is limited. Please RSVP: gallery@jjay.cuny.edu

JAYANTHI MOORTHY Artist-Curator, Art Educator and Learning Designer

Jayanthi Moorthy is an interdisciplinary artist and an art educator with a background in design (interior, animation, publishing, user interface and learning design) and business administration. In 2017 she won a Creative Engagement Award from the New York Cultural Council for her art-community project Art Fast designed to create an immersive cultural experience through art and design workshops.